

ASSISTED LIVING WAIVER (ALW)

PUBLICLY SUBSIDIZED HOUSING (PSH)

ALW ASSISTED CARE BENEFITS IN PSH ARE PROVIDED BY HOME HEALTH AGENCIES

Home health agency personnel—

- Provide personal care and assistance with ADLs and IADLs to meet scheduled and unscheduled needs of the ALW participants.
- Assist in developing and updating ALW participants' Individualized Service Plans (ISP) which detail, at a minimum, the frequency and timing of assistance. Participants play active roles in the development process and must sign their ISP.
- Perform all necessary housekeeping tasks.
- Provide three meals per day plus snacks. Food must meet minimum daily nutritional requirements and meet the participants special dietary needs prescribed by the PCP.
- Wash, dry and fold laundry.
- In accordance with State law, provide assistance with the administration of medications.
- Provide or coordinate transportation.
- Provide daily social and recreational activities.
- Provide a response system that enables ALW participants to summon assistance from personal care providers.
